

I do not want to weaken current Indiana law concerning telephone privacy. If those people need to converse or do business with me, they can use the US mail service. Please allow my weekends and evenings to remain peaceful as they have been since the Indiana law was enacted.